S. MINT, PHILA.

Mr. Eugene Townsend,
Supt. U. S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:-

We beg to hand you herewith a receipt X of the United States Express Co. for a shipment of Bullion made by us, on which you will observe the following clause written across the face :

"Should this money be lost, stolen or wholly destroyed by Fire while in our possession during transit, it is understood we agree to make the amount good."

As we always have this clause inserted on receipts for specie shipments, we would thank you, when shipping the Sucres to us, to have the receipts you receive from the U. S. Express Co. made in the same manner.

Kindly return the enclosed specimen, and oblige,

Yours respectfully,

Lazard Frères
